FLORIDA EDUCATION ASSOCIATION

Human and Civil Rights Awards

2022 Call for Nominations

APPLICATION DEADLINE: FRIDAY, JULY 29, 2022

Call for Nominations

The Human and Civil Rights Committee requests your nomination of individuals or groups whom you feel should be considered as recipients of the annual FEA Human and Civil Rights Awards.

All nominees, through their activities, must exemplify their support for public education. Nominations may be submitted by a local FEA affiliate, an individual in the education profession, or any special interest group recognized by FEA.

The Human & Civil Rights Award is presented to a nominee who has demonstrated support and promotion of diversity and social justice.

The Martin Luther King, Jr. Award honors the memory of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. As seen in the qualification's listings, the purpose of this award is to recognize achievement in the areas of self-determination and civil rights.

The Mary McLeod Bethune Human Relations in Education Award recognizes outstanding leadership in the promotion of human and civil rights.

The Cesar Chavez Action and Commitment Award recognizes outstanding leadership through engaging in activities which dignify workers and by making notable contributions to the labor movement.

The FEA Service Award is presented to a FEA member, or a local affiliate, who has advanced the cause of human and civil rights.

The Andy Ford Lifetime Achievement Award is named in honor of the commitment and dedication former FEA president, Andy Ford, has exhibited throughout his lifetime on behalf of Florida's students, public schools, and FEA members.
