

WHY ARE TEACHERS WITH 10+ YEARS OF EXPERIENCE PAID THE SAME AS A FIRST-YEAR TEACHER

Florida's race to the bottom of teacher salaries began when Gov. Rick Scott signed SB 736 into law. Among other things, this bill radically transformed teacher compensation.

Gov. DeSantis took the bad situation he inherited and made it even worse by explicitly forbidding school districts from providing experienced teachers with raises they deserve.

Since 2011 more than twenty laws restricting teacher pay have been signed.
