There are two ways you can search for a bill

1. If you know the bill's number, simply put the number in text field labeled "Bill #" and click "Search"
2. If you don't know the bill's number, or simply want to conduct a broader search, you can enter some text from the bill.
 - This method of searching could be useful if you wanted to find all bills that deal with a specific topic.

The screenshot displays the official website of the Florida House of Representatives. At the top, a navigation bar includes a search section with a red circle highlighting the 'Bill' dropdown menu, the 'Bill #' text input field, and the 'Search' button. Other search options include 'Statute', '2022' dropdown, 'Search Term', 'Chapter', and 'Site Search'. The main header features the Florida House of Representatives logo and a list of navigation links: Home, Bills, Representatives, Committees, Leadership, House Schedule, Publications, and Tracking. Below the header, a 'News Alert' banner reads '2022-2023 Interim Committee Week Dates Announced (Click Here)'. A large image of the House chamber is positioned below the banner. The central area contains a grid of six service tiles: 'House Directory' (Members / Committees / Staff), 'Lobbyist Disclosure' (Lobbyist Information), 'House Majority Office' (House Republicans), 'House Minority Office' (House Democrats), 'Legislator University' (Information & Resources), and 'Florida Redistricting Website'. At the bottom of this grid are links for 'Upcoming Scheduled Events' and 'Find Your Representative'. On the right side, a profile for Paul Renner, Speaker of the House, is featured with a photo and links to 'Speaker's Appointments', 'Speaker's District Page', and 'Speaker's Office Press Releases'.

Each bill will have its own page which contains quite a bit of useful information including the following:

In addition to searching for bills, you may want to search for committees.

This can be easily done by simply clicking “Committees” from the homepage of the Florida House.

Then, click on the name of the committee you’re interested in.

You'll notice that the Senate website is set up very similar to the House.

You can search by bill number, and you can search for committees.

The screenshot shows the official website of the Florida Senate. At the top, there is a navigation bar with a search function. The search bar includes a 'Go to Bill:' section with a dropdown for the year '2023' and a 'Go' button, and a 'Find Statutes:' section with a dropdown for the year '2022', a 'Search Term' field, a 'Chapter' dropdown, and a 'Find' button. A 'Search Site' button is also present. Below the navigation bar is a horizontal menu with links to 'Home', 'Senators', 'Committees', 'Session', 'Laws', 'Media', 'About', and 'Offices'. The 'Committees' link is circled in red. Below the menu, a message states: 'The Senate will convene at 10:30 a.m. on Monday, December 12, 2022, for the 2022 Special Session A.' A date bar shows 'Wednesday, December 7, 2022'. Below this is a 'Calendar' section with tabs for 'Calendar', 'Filed Today', and 'Bill Actions'. A message states: 'No events scheduled for this day.' Below the calendar is a 'Recent Posts' section with three entries: 'Joint Proclamation for Special Session A - Hurricane Relief, Property Insurance Reform, Toll Credit Program (PDF)' dated December 6, 2022; 'Committee Leadership and Committee Assignments (PDF)' dated December 5, 2022; and 'Senate District 40 November Newsletter - Senator Ana Maria Rodriguez (PDF)' dated November 30, 2022. On the right side, there is a 'Spotlights' section with a video player showing Senator Kathleen Passidomo speaking at a podium. Below the video, the text reads: '2022 Organization Session. The Senate convened in Organization Session on November 22, 2022. Senator Kathleen Passidomo of Naples was elected Senate President and Senator Dennis Baxley of Ocala was elected.' The 'Committees' link in the navigation menu is circled in red.

We recommend strong passwords that are at least 6 characters in length and contain one upper case letter, one lower case letter, and one number or special character.

Creating an account is as simple as filling out the above fields and clicking “Create Account.” A word of caution—some bills will have many, many amendments filed. If you choose “instantly” for e-mail frequency, there might be days you are bombarded with e-mails.

All committee meetings, as well as meetings of the full House and Senate can be streamed live at <http://www.thefloridachannel.org> by choosing the “Live Streams” tab and the selecting the meeting you would like to watch.

The stream will begin 10 minutes before the meeting is scheduled to start.

Prefer to watch on your phone? There is a Florida Channel app that will allow you watch livestreams as well as archived videos.

We know that most of our members are unable to watch the meetings live. You can also search the Florida Channel website by entering the name of the committee you are looking for and/or the date of the meeting.

Videos are typically posted within a few hours of the conclusion of the meeting.
